Dean
Sushma Swaraj Institute of Foreign Service
Ministry of External Affairs

The Sushma Swaraj Institute of Foreign Service (SSIFS) witnessed a change of guard early in the month of September 2021. Amb. J.S. Mukul completed his four-year term and relinquished charge as the Dean of SSIFS on 12 September 2021. I assumed charge as the Dean on 14 September 2021 in addition to my charge as Additional Secretary (Administration) in the Ministry of External Affairs. It is a great pleasure to head the Institute where I trained as an Officer Trainee nearly three decades ago.

With the easing of COVID-19 situation in the country, the highlight of this quarter was a return to the on-campus training programmes both for the Indian officers/officials and foreign diplomats. SSIFS conducted courses for the first time for officers from the Office of the Comptroller & Auditor General of India in view of their growing involvement in the auditing of international organizations and for the officers from the Haryana Institute of Public Administration (HIPA) in the spirit of paradiplomacy conducted by them. The Mid-Career Training Programme (MCTP)-I for Officers of the Indian Foreign Service (IFS) with about a decade's service was held virtually at Headquarters and Missions/Posts abroad. A four-week probation-related Training Programme for Under Secretary level officers was organized online during this period to implement the new format for their induction into Group 'A' of the IFS. Defence Attachés who have been posted to Missions/Posts abroad, underwent a week-long training programme at SSIFS during this period.

The 8th Special Course for Diplomats from Afghanistan in July 2021 marked the return to the physical format for diplomats travelling from overseas. Barring an online Special Course for Diplomats from Sierra Leone in June 2021, all the other courses were conducted offline. The first-ever Special Course for diplomats from six countries of the Indian Ocean Region (IOR) was held in September 2021. The Familiarization Programmes for Heads of Foreign Diplomatic Missions and Foreign Resident Diplomats in New Delhi were well received. We were happy to welcome Hon'ble MoS for External Affairs & Education Shri Rajkumar Ranjan Singh to SSIFS. He graced the Valedictory Function for Foreign Heads of Missions and interacted with the Ambassadors and High Commissioners. In the coming months, SSIFS intends to organize courses which were postponed due to the pandemic.

SSIFS' Videsh Sewa now enters its second decade with this eleventh edition! We will continue to offer a snapshot of our activities as we contribute towards building capacity in diplomacy in the post-pandemic world!
